VOL. II. NO. 216.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1896.

PRICE, 5 CTS

RACING GOSSIP.

The new weight rule proposed for Jockey Club courses is as follows:

Rule 77. Amend by increasing weights 4 lbs.; two-year-olds, 122 lbs.; three-year-olds or four-year-olds, 126 lbs.; also scale of weights for different ages, and by the addition of the following:

In all handicaps the top weight shall not be less than 126 lbs.

If in a handicap for which there is a minor forfeit declared by a fixed time the highest weight accepting was originally less than 126 lbs., it shall be raised to that weight and the other acceptances equally.

To take effect January 1, 1897.

Amended rule to read as follows:

The following weights shall be carried when not stated in the conditions of the race:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Old Major Domo is to be trained again and raced by W. J. Speirs.

Jim Brady has gone to Pasadena, Cal., for his health. He started Wednesday night.

The city council of Sacramento, Cal., recently passed an ordinance which closes the pool rooms.

Sister Mary has seen her best days. She let down badly after her race with Summertime at Oakland, Cal., recently and will be placed in the stud.

L. A. Legg left for California Wednesday night. He took no horses with him. His string is resting for the winter within thirty miles of Chicago.

The English accepted Wishard and Duke and the firm's stable but fought Jockey Reiff. Yet the Americans stuck to the boy and profited by their loyalty.

Pittsburg Phil paid $7500 for The Winner and the change of owners restored the colt to good standing in the East.

When the St. Louis Fair Grounds Association annual meeting is held this month it is likely that Robt. Aull will be elected president and Joe Murphy secretary.

J. A. McLaughlin, the once premier of American jockeys, has supplanted Jimmy McCormick as the trainer of the Burns & Waterhouse stable. His contract is for one year.

The effete East which has several times rejected Tod Sloan now swallows him, cigars, hi-ky and all. His interests of late have been with Pittsburgh Phil, M. F. Dwyer and general gaudiness of raiment.

J. E. Seagram sold some horses in Toronto, Nov. 18. The prices ruled low. The highest price was $210. Vicar of Wakefield, b. g. 5, by Springfield—Bonnie Vic. and Bonfield, br. g. 4, full brother to Vicar of Wakefield, $165.

There is little credit to the Cincinnati fable about Oakley going to mutual and auction betting next season. The Oakley investment hasn't been one of loss. The profit it has reaped is just about that contributed by the bookmakers and refreshment privileges.

There is to be a northern racing circuit in 1897, made up of Cleveland, Detroit, Buffalo, Pittsburg and three or four other towns. Hayden Dargen, of Walter & Hayden, is the moving spirit in the enterprise which will be successful, unless the laws of the states in which the towns are situated do not interfere.

The St. Louis Fair Grounds Association is still deeply in debt. Its indebtedness consists of $250,000 first mortgage, $126,000 second mortgages and a $500,000 bond issue of stock. The money was spent in the various improvements on the grounds. The former obligation has just been extended until 2006.

Dr. R. W. Carter has purchased of A. J. Cassatt, Chesterbrook Stud, Pa., for P. Lorillard, the following yearlings, which will be sent to England to race: Bay gelding, by The Bard, dam Equipoise, by Enquirer; bay gelding by The Bard, dam Maumee, by Vauxhall, and brown gelding by Stratford, dam The Dawn, by Rayon d'Or.

The Fitzsimmons-Sharkey decision should give pungency to pugilism. Earp, the referee, and Riley Grannan nearly came to the use of pistols at San Francisco a few days ago. Lynch, Sharkey's manager, has a muddy record from baseball down to the turf and pugilism. He was banished from racing as the Arizona stable at San Francisco last winter.

Mr. Belmont evidently knows that he took snap judgement in the matter of banishing Will Wallace, as the California Jockey Club accepted the Wallace entries on the strength of a letter from Mr. Belmont, which declared the action against Wallace to be merely local. Some twelve horses of the Wallace string are on their way to Frisco, including Herman the jumper. Higgins the steeplechase jockey has also gone with the stable.

Enoch Wishard and W. Duke, Jr. are back from England with what they kept out of their string—Hugh Penny and George H. Ketcham. Wishard is full of wordy warmth for his English treatment and thinks horses are easier to train in English than American air. He says that he and Duke backed Ramapo to win $150,000 for the Steward's Cup race at Goodwood and that if the horse had not stepped on a stone and hurt his foot, so as to swerve clear across a broad near the finish, he would have won the race.
